Trends in International Mathematics and Science Study [TIMMS]: Selected this year for participation

National Assessment of Educational Progress (NAEP): a national assessment of students' skills

(reading & science in grade 4; mathematics, reading, & science in grade 12) [dates tentative as of 5.15.19] January 28—March 15, 2020

Students are randomly selected for NAEP in schools that have also been randomly selected to represent demographic diversity across the state of Tennessee.

Tennessee Department of Education requires participation by school systems.

Communication is made to parents of selected students, and parents may request non-participation with no penalty.

Since testing has random student participation, all data feed into a statewide and nationwide compilation, but

NO student, school, or system data reports are available.

Participating this year: TBA

[TDOE notice indicates that other schools may be added.]

Sumner County—Tennessee Comprehensive Assessment Program Calendar (2019.20 SY)

The Tennessee Department of Education has updated information about state-mandated assessments on its website:

<https://www.tn.gov/education/assessment.html>

HOME SCHOOL Students:

Home school students are permitted to take Advanced Placement [AP] & Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test / National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test [PSAT/NMSQT] exams in public schools where they are administered. Publication of dates of the administration are to be posted on school websites where applicable. [TCA 49-6-3050(f)]

Independent home school students who are in grade 5 or 7 can take TN Ready achievement tests at the public school for which they would normally be zoned. Contact is normally made in early second semester of the school year using current database lists obtained from the Sumner County Attendance Department, where home school registrations are made. That contact relates procedural guidelines to be followed by parents. [TCA 49-6-3050(b)5(A&B)]

Independent home school students who are in grade 9 taking Algebra I and/or English I [specifically named courses] can take TN Ready end-of-course tests at the public school for which they would normally be zoned during the spring testing window. Contact is normally made in early second semester of the school year using current database lists obtained from the Sumner County Attendance Department, where home school registrations are made. That contact relates procedural guidelines to be followed by parents. [TCA 49-6-3050(b)5(A&B)]
